

Campus Resources

Navigating your path to successful graduation can sometimes seem overwhelming; however, you are not alone. There are dozens of resources available on campus to help you succeed. Whatever your need or interest, you are likely to find something on campus. Please note that this list is not comprehensive. There are too many campus resources to list in one document. See your academic advisor for referrals to other resources, as needed.

- Academic Success Center: <http://www.lib.usf.edu/tutoring/> | LIB 206, 813-974-2713
 - Get help with everything from science and math to foreign languages from trained tutors. Improve your study skills and learn how to prepare for your tests.
- Career Services: <http://www.usf.edu/career-services/> | SVC 2088, 813-974-2171
 - It is never too early to start thinking about your career. From interest assessments to resume critiques, the Career Center is here for you at every stage of your journey. They also host numerous job and internship fairs that can help you connect with employers. Visit them today!
- The Writing Center: <http://www.lib.usf.edu/writing/> | LIB 122, 813-974-8293
 - If writing is not your strong point, or if you would simply like assistance with proofreading your work, let a writing center consultant help you! The Writing Center offers one-on-one assistance to any student who wants to improve his or her writing skills.
- The Counseling Center: <http://www.usf.edu/student-affairs/counseling-center/> | SVC 2124, 813-974-2831
 - During college, you might experience a great many stresses in your life – sorting out your independence and identity, establishing and maintaining important relationships, coping with anxiety and depression, finding confidence in a future direction, dealing with body-image or excessive substance use, and handling new academic demands. To help with these challenges and more, the Counseling Center provides a variety of psychological services for all currently registered students on the Tampa campus of the University of South Florida. Appointments are free and confidential.
- Office for Undergraduate Research: <http://www.lib.usf.edu/undergraduate-research/> | LIB 210, 813-974-6824
 - Participating in undergraduate research promotes deeper understanding and greater satisfaction with the college experience. Here at USF, you will have the opportunity to conduct your own research and develop relationships with faculty mentors. It is a great way to enhance your resume and explore your interests.
- Center for Student Involvement: <http://involvement.usf.edu/default.htm> | Marshall Student Center, 813-974-1001
 - If you want to get involved with something on campus, and you should, then this is the place to start. Whether you want to find fun and free activities on campus or join a club/organization, the CSI has all of the information that you will need.
- The Center for Leadership & Civic Engagement: <http://volunteer.usf.edu/default.php> | MSC 1300, 813-974-7595
 - The Center for Leadership and Civic Engagement (CLCE) develops students into leaders that will make a positive difference in the world. These programs help each student discover their passion and talents, while developing their skills and understanding of leadership and active citizenship.
- Education Abroad: <http://educationabroad.global.usf.edu/> | MSC 3301 and CGS 101, 813-974-4314
 - If you are interested in a study abroad program, this office should be your first stop. There are hundreds of options around the world on 6 continents. The website has a database that you can search and/or filter down to find the program that is right for you. Studying abroad is a wonderful way to improve your resume, give you a global experience and perspective, and allow you the opportunity to experience other cultures.
- Campus Recreation: <http://usfweb2.usf.edu/CampusRec/index.html> | Recreation Center, 813-974-7084
 - Your time at USF does not have to be strictly about books and study. The Campus Recreation facility is a wonderful hub for many fun and exciting things to do both on and off campus. From outdoor excursions to the gym, there is something for everyone.
